

FIREWORKS

Though fireworks are denied us
It is not hard to find
Cases of brain tetanus
Caused by the verbal kind.

EDITORIAL SECTION

BY JEAN HUBBS

News of Stanley Seder

Stanley Seder, talented pianist, organist and composer, has met with marked success in New York City.

He is playing the organ in the Calvary Baptist church in East Orange, N. J., on Sunday, and during July and August he will substitute for Mark Andrews, a brother of Charles Andrews of this city, at Temple Emmanuel, which is one of the largest synagogues in the United States.

Mr. Seder took an examination in sight-reading with a large class in New York City and scored the highest number of points made by anyone in the class.

Friends of Mr. Seder in Albuquerque will be delighted to hear of his exceptional success.

In Honor of Beatrice and Ruth Ilfield

Mrs. Louis Ilfield gave a most delightful soiree dansante Thursday at the Masonic Temple in honor of her daughters, Misses Beatrice and Ruth Ilfield, who have recently returned from college in the east.

Decorations in the reception hall, ballroom and banquet hall were carried out in red, white and blue. Flags were artistically arranged on the walls and streamers in the national colors were fastened from chandelier to chandelier. A large portrait of George Washington, surrounded by appropriately colored electric lights, was symbolic of the patriotic scheme of decoration.

Dancing began soon after 9 o'clock and tangoing and hesitating occupied the guests until midnight, when a delicious supper was served. The same color scheme was used in the banquet hall and the tables were brightened by vases of lovely flowers.

After supper the guests returned to the ball room and danced until the wee small hours.

The guests were: Misses Aline Stern, Elsie Kempenich, Eleanor Vaughney, Gladys Mandell, Virginia Carr, Agnes and Edith Childers, Helen and Myrl Hope, Helen Kelly of Las Vegas, Margaret Ross of Kansas City, Regina Rosenwald, Florence Grunfeld, Katherine Stricker, Annette Weinman, Loraine Lightbourne, Eileen and Dorothy McMillen, Jean Hughes, Hazel Maloy, Mildred Hughes of El Paso, Maybelle and Lois Loveland, Alice and Elizabeth Coopers, Laureen Asselin, Julie Keleher, Catherine Powell, Jessie Tierney, Messrs. R. Flanders, U. Hill, Arthur Praeger, Ernest Landolfi, Milton Florschheim, Dave Rosenwald, Clyde Ross, Arthur Eick, Arthur Ringland, Lester Ilfield, Lawrence Ilfield, Frank Hubbell, William McCurken, Walter Sidge, Charles Lemble, Lester Cooper, Will McMillen, Harold Sollers, Eugene Carr, Laurence Lee, Harry Dix, D. Davis, Tom Egan, Gillette Cornish, Will and Ralph Keleher, Arthur Yarrow, Ira Holdt, Will White, Will McKee, Frank Spitz, James Bibo, Lloyd Sturges, Walter Weinman, Dr. W. Lovelace, Mrs. Margaret Medier, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Non Ilfield, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ilfield, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stern, Mrs. R. W. D. Bryan, Mrs. Edward Spitz and Mr. Max Nordhausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Valliant Return

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Valliant returned the first of the week from their honeymoon trip and are at home at 522 West Copper avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Valliant were married Wednesday evening, June 24th, at 8 o'clock, in St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Winslow, Arkansas, the bride's home, the local newspaper describing the wedding as one of exceptional beauty and charm. Mrs. Valliant was Miss Elizabeth Page. Mr. Valliant is general manager of the Evening Herald.

Miss Stern Gives Tea

Tuesday afternoon Miss Aline Stern gave a most enjoyable informal tea in honor of Misses Beatrice and Ruth Ilfield. Miss Florence Grunfeld and some of the other girls who have returned from college.

There were about thirty-five guests present. The dining table was exceptionally attractive. The centerpiece was a basket of red and white carnations held in white tulip, and on each corner of the table was a low vase of sweetpeas and lilies of the valley.

The refreshments which were served were delicious and the affair throughout was entirely delightful.

Patriotic Luncheon

Wednesday noon Mrs. Albert Stern, 1125 West Tijeras avenue, gave a beautifully appointed luncheon in honor of Misses Beatrice and Ruth Ilfield.

The table was decorated in red, white and blue, with a centerpiece of white sweet peas, and tiny silk flags for favors.

The guests were: Misses Beatrice and Ruth Ilfield, Miss Aline Stern, Miss Annette Weinman, Miss Elsie Kempenich, Miss Florence Grunfeld, and Miss Mildred Hughes of El Paso.

In Honor of Florence Grunfeld

Monday evening Mrs. Ivan Grun-

The Evening Herald

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO, SATURDAY, JULY 4, 1914.

HELP WANTED

WANTED—By New Mexico Dental society, patients for demonstration work. Apply at Tucson, July 16.

PART TWO

Mrs. Lackey will make their home in Carlsbad.

The many friends throughout the state are showering the young couple with best wishes for their complete happiness.

—o—

Auction Morning

Monday morning, Mrs. Henry Coors gave a delightful auction party in honor of Mrs. Herbert Jefferson of Chico, who was her house guest for several days this week.

Mrs. Bert Skinner was the fortunate winner of the first prize.

A delicious two-course lunch was served at a table invitingly brightened with fragrant sweetpeas.

The guests were Mesdames Herbert Jefferson, C. H. Conner, Harry Strong, Tom Wilkerson, E. A. Mann, J. A. Reidy, Tom Isaac, Bert Taylor, Charlie Lechairs, H. L. Hunt, Frank Ackerman, James Blainey, Tony Chisum, Roy Peters, L. H. Morris, Ada Bittner, E. A. Vaughn, Bert Skinner, F. K. Nohl, Arno Hunting, G. H. Martin, E. J. Aiger, James Chavez and Summers Burkhardt.

—o—

Mrs. Stortz Gives Party

Friday afternoon Mrs. Frank Stortz was hostess at a jolly auction party given in honor of Mrs. A. S. Bronson of El Paso, who is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Ackerman.

After a number of enjoyable games of auction a delicious two-course lunch was served.

Mrs. Stortz was assisted by Helen Rutherford, Hazel Carnes and Grace Stortz.

The guests were: Mrs. A. S. Bronson, Mrs. Frank Ackerman, Mrs. Felix Boca, Mrs. Bert Baker, Mrs. Ada Bittner, Mrs. Harry Benjamin, Mrs. Nancy Bowcock, Mrs. D. H. Carnes, Mrs. C. H. Conner, Mrs. James Chavez, Mrs. Fred Campbell, Mrs. W. Connel, Mrs. D. P. Gill, Mrs. Jerry Haggard, Mrs. F. It Hornby, Mrs. Louis Hunting, Mrs. Soul Harris, Mrs. Anna Hanning, Mrs. L. Hunt, Mrs. George Knock, Mrs. W. C. Koen, Mrs. F. Jarrett, Mrs. C. E. Lowber, Mrs. D. A. Macpherson, Mrs. E. McElwain, Mrs. G. R. McLandress, Mrs. I. B. Morris, Mrs. Ross Merritt, Mrs. Manuel Otero, Mrs. O. Rutherford, Mrs. H. O. Strong, Mrs. W. W. Strong, Mrs. E. D. Sisk, Mrs. Frank Tull, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. E. A. Vaughn, Mrs. Tom Wilkerson, Mrs. M. K. Wylder, Mrs. W. P. Woy, Mrs. Charles Waddington, Mrs. John W. Wilson, Mrs. Jacobo Yrisarri, Mrs. A. F. Van Deine and Miss Hilda Hetzel.

—o—

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Barbara Johnson and Mr. Robert Delti has been announced this week. The wedding will take place in a few months.

Miss Johnson is a sister of Mrs. B. Harold Jamison and her home is in Winchester, Mass., although she has during the past two or three years spent a great deal of her time in New Mexico, in this city and on her large ranch near Tesuque.

Mr. Delti has lived in Albuquerque for the past four years. His former home was in New York.

—o—

Music at Mountainair Chautauqua

Mr. Charles Andrews of this city has charge of the music at the chautauqua this year and will give three concerts.

The first two will be given by Albuquerquers talent with the exception of Mr. L. J. Tello, violinist, of Santa Fe, and the third will be a choral concert.

The artists who are going from this city are Mrs. Ada Pierce Winn, soprano; Mrs. Charles Andrews, contralto; Mr. Charles Andrews, tenor and director, and Mr. Louis Hesselman, bass.

At one of the first concerts "The Persian Garden" will be sung.

The chorus for "The final musical event of the chautauqua is to be composed of singers from all over the state and promises to be an unusually fine entertainment.

Among the numbers which will be sung are:

"O Italia, Italia, Beloved" (Donizetti).

"The Sun Now Mounts the Eastern Sky" (Gade).

"Song of the Vikings" (Fenning).

"The Miller's Woe" (Fenning).

"My Love Dwelt in a Northern Land" (Elgar).

Any singers who expect to be at the chautauqua and who would like to sing in this chorus are requested to communicate with Mr. Andrews.

—o—

Physical Culture at Chautauqua

Mrs. J. E. Easterday has been asked to bring eight girls from her physical culture class to the chautauqua to give demonstrations.

The girls are practicing a number of Indian club, dumbbell and wands drills and there is no doubt but that they will put on an excellent exhibition.

Those who are going to Mountainair are Mrs. J. E. Easterday and Priscilla Newcomer, Alvina Postel, Daphne Cobh, Flora Chase, Ethel McCloskey, Carrie Harris, Gladys Davis, Margaret Easterday and Alvina Fried.

—o—

Picture Show Party

Last Saturday evening a number of the high school girls enjoyed a jolly picture show party, chaperoned by Mrs. Sol Weiler.

Those who were present are Catherine McMillen, Anita and Margaret Hubbell, Annette Weinman, Grace Stortz, Louise Treffenberg, Irene Fee, Lillian Kempenick, Mildred Hughes and Florence Weiller.

—o—

In Honor of Mr. Chanam

Wednesday evening Mr. Arthur Ringland gave a delightful supper at Silva's in honor of Mr. Charles Chapman of San Francisco, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Weiller for several days this week.

His guests were Mr. Charles Chapman, Miss Kathryn Stricker, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. O. Chadbourne and Mr. Robert Delti.

Mrs. O. Chadbourne entertained informally at dinner Thursday evening in Mr. Chapman's honor.

—o—

The Highland Bridge Club

The four members of the Highland Bridge club who held the lowest scores for the year entertained a dinner at the Alvarado hotel Thursday evening, after which the jolly crowd went to the picture shows.

The four members who were not hostesses each read an original and appropriate poem.

The table was particularly inviting with an artistic bouquet of sweet-peas and daisies as a centerpiece.

The hostesses were Mrs. Frank Ackerman, Mrs. E. A. Vaughn, Mrs. L. G. Rice, Mrs. J. A. Reidy, Mrs. W. W. Strong.

Those who were there were Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Carns, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Tull, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lowber, Mrs. J. A. Reidy and Mrs. W. W. Strong.

—o—

Wedding Anniversary

Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weiller had a jolly evening party last Sunday in celebration of the fifth anniversary of their marriage.

—o—

The Vandy Sewing Club

Wednesday evening, Mrs. W. C. Keim, Twelfth street and Roma avenue, gave a jolly tango party in honor of Miss Eleanor Vandyng. A delicious supper was served at midnight.

—o—

Tango Party for Miss Vaughney

Wednesday evening, Mrs. W. C. Keim, Twelfth street and Roma avenue, gave a jolly tango party in honor of Miss Eleanor Vandyng. A delicious supper was served at midnight.

—o—

Wedding Anniversary

Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weiller had a jolly evening party last Sunday in celebration of the fifth anniversary of their marriage.

—o—

The Vandy Sewing Club

Wednesday evening, Mrs. W. C. Keim, Twelfth street and Roma avenue, gave a jolly tango party in honor of Miss Eleanor Vandyng. A delicious supper was served at midnight.

—o—

Wedding Anniversary

Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weiller had a jolly evening party last Sunday in celebration of the fifth anniversary of their marriage.

—o—

The Vandy Sewing Club

Wednesday evening, Mrs. W. C. Keim, Twelfth street and Roma avenue, gave a jolly tango party in honor of Miss Eleanor Vandyng. A delicious supper was served at midnight.

—o—

Wedding Anniversary

Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weiller had a jolly evening party last Sunday in celebration of the fifth anniversary of their marriage.

—o—

The Vandy Sewing Club

Wednesday evening, Mrs. W. C. Keim, Twelfth street and Roma avenue, gave a jolly tango party in honor of Miss Eleanor Vandyng. A delicious supper was served at midnight.

—o—

Wedding Anniversary

Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weiller had a jolly evening party last Sunday in celebration of the fifth anniversary of their marriage.

—o—

The Vandy Sewing Club

Wednesday evening, Mrs. W. C. Keim, Twelfth street and Roma avenue, gave a jolly tango party in honor of Miss Eleanor Vandyng. A delicious supper was served at midnight.

—o—

Wedding Anniversary

Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weiller had a jolly evening party last Sunday in celebration of the fifth anniversary of their marriage.

—o—

The Vandy Sewing Club

Wednesday evening, Mrs. W. C. Keim, Twelfth street and Roma avenue,